JEWETT CITY

The farical musical revue, Oh, Oh, Cincy, given by local young people under the instruction of Mr. Welmer and under the auspices of the American Legion Post Wednesday evening in Elgin Opera House, was a great success. The amateur performers had rehearsed only two weeks, yet their work was excellent.

The choruses were very prompt and snappy and with the solos and dances received the hearty applause.

More sang "The Aeroplane Song" and Starlight and she and Edna Sharkey sang the solos in Come Along to the Movies. Miss Morey and Herbert Thompson sang "You've Been the Light of My Life." The Three Bears sang "Go the Nicest Little Home in Dixie" and Matthew Exley and the Big Four sang "Quack, Quack, Said the Duck." Edna Sharkey gave "The Game of Love is Like a Game of Cards." Everett H. Hixon, Jr., sang, Oh, Miss White and I Want a Chance to Beat that Drum. Messrs. Chase, Thompson and Exley sang, Oh, What a Bum. These songs were supplemented by choruses and dances, which with the play made great hits. Special scenery and costumes which added to the attractiveness of the presentation. The role of Cincy or Cinderella Van Alstyne was filled by Della Morey and that of Storken Crag by Herbert Thompson, both coming up to the requirements splendidly. Edna Sharkey was Blanche Blondine, the Three Bears were Chester Stafford, John LaClare and Henry E. Paul, Jr. Mrs. Prentice Chase was Lily White. E. H. Hixon, Jr., was Friday and Charles Harrington Saturday. Matthew Exley was Santa Claus; Carleton Havens was Santa Claus; Prentice Chase, Terrence O'Harrigan, Alice Harrington, Le Crier; the Big Four, Grace Sharkey, Violet Gill, Frances Pulaski and Agnes Symington. The Cannibals were Mildred Sweet, Clara Richardson, Christine

TO STOP COUGHING AT NIGHT.

What if anyone is suffering from a bronchial affliction or has a cough that lingers on and grows worse at night, the loss of sleep tends to weaken the sufferer and grows more serious the longer it is neglected. Mr. M. Sutter, 441 Longbrook Ave., Stratford, Conn., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar has given me great relief from a severe attack of bronchitis. The medicine stands higher throughout the nation as a family remedy for colds, coughs and croup. Lee & Osgood Co."
